

Stillpoint

FREE GUIDE

My wishes worksheet

Record what matters to you, calmly and ahead of time.

This is general, educational information from a free matching service. Stillpoint is not a funeral home and does not give legal or financial advice. Always ask each provider for its itemized price list and confirm prices in writing.

My wishes: a pre-planning worksheet

Writing down your wishes is a gift to the people who love you. There are no wrong answers, and you can change anything later. You do not have to pre-pay anything to record your wishes.

What I would like

I would prefer (burial / cremation / not sure):

The kind of gathering I would like:

Music, readings, or words that matter to me:

Faith, culture, or traditions to honor:

Where I would like it held:

Practical notes

People who should be told:

Where my important documents are kept:

Any pre-need contract or insurance (company and policy):

If I am a veteran, my service details:

Keep this worksheet somewhere your family can find it, and tell one trusted person where it is.

Stillpoint is a free matching service, not a funeral home or insurer, and does not give legal or financial advice. When the time comes, we can connect your family, free, with licensed providers at stillpointrest.com.